principal increases in the various departments.

The Governor in 1878 received $24,000 and $1,440 entertainment allowance. The present salary is $24,000, and $4,800 entertainment allowance. In the Estimates for next year the salary is put down at $25,000, and the entertainment allowance at $7,000, making a total of $32,000, as compared with $25,440 in 1878, and $28,800 in 1880. The increase here appears to have been fixed arbitrarily, no doubt in accordance with instructions received from the Secretary of State, and falls considerably below the 35 per cent. received by some other officers. The salary of the Colonial Secretary is raised from $7,200 to $9,720, that is, by 35 per cent. The Assistant Colonial Secretary, an office which was not in existence in 1878, gets an increase from $3,860 to $5,000, while the Chief Clerk gets the full benefit of the 35 per cent., his salary being raised from $2,400 to $3,240, and that of the Clerk of Councils, an office usually held by the Chief Clerk, from $1,200 to $1,560.

The first, second, and third clerks get increases at the rate of 20 per cent., these officers being usually filled locally. The salary of the Colonial Treasurer is raised from $960 to $1,296, and that of the First Clerk and Cashier from $1,296 to $1,728, the second clerk and third clerk receiving increases on the 20 per cent. scale. The Surveyor-General's department does not come under the new scheme, except in the case of one or two junior officers, the salaries having been re-arranged last year. The Water and Drainage department has only just been constituted, so that there are no increases in individual salaries to be noted there. Mr.

O'Sullivan, the Consulting Engineer, while in Hongkong received £100 per month and in England to receive £200 per annum.

The next department is the Post Office, where the Postmaster-General receives an increase from $3,840 to $5,184, and the Assistant Postmaster-General from $2,400 to $3,240.

Other officers in the department receiving increases on the 20 per cent. scale. The increase received by the Registrar-General is a small one, the salary put down for next year being $5,184 as against $5,040 for the present year, but in 1878 it was only $3,840, and 35 per cent. added on to that gives the amount now fixed. The Assistant Registrar-General gets no increase, his being an office created since 1878. The first and second clerks get increases at the rate of 35 per cent., and some of the junior officers at 20 per cent.

The Harbour Master and Assistant

Harbour Master were specially excluded from the benefit of the new scheme by the Secretary of State, and the salary of the former consequently remains at $4,800 as in 1878, while that of the Assistant Harbour Master is only $2,400 better, being now $2,640, to which it was raised some little time ago, as against $2,400 in 1878.

In these amounts the sums formerly drawn by these officers separately as Superintendent of the Gunpowder Depot and Collector of Light Dues are included, having been small garnished with the salaries. It certainly seems rather hard on these officers that they should be left out in the cold. When Captain MacDonnell held the office of Assistant Harbour Master he had the appointment of Assistant Superintendent of the Fire Brigade as a make-weight, but Captain Hastings has nothing beyond the bare salary of his office, which must be confessed is hardly sufficient for him to maintain his position upon.

Formerly, we believe, this officer was allowed to retain the fee paid for examination by given on account of the raising of the character of the institution on its transfer to the new building and not on account of the increased cost of living. The Medical Department is also excluded from the increase for reasons stated in the Secretary of State's despatch, but it must be admitted the salaries of the gentlemen engaged at the Civil Hospital appear rather meagre for professional men.

At the Police Court the two Magistrates get the advantage of the 35 per cent.

increase, the salaries being raised from $3,840 to $5,184. The Magistrate acting as Coroner, however, draws only the same pay as the Coroner drew in 1878. The first clerk gets the increase of 35 per cent. on the 1878 salary, but has the value of the quarters deducted. This is one of the cases where the scheme seems to work somewhat hardily the quarters having been given originally for the convenience of the service and not as an addition to the salary of the office. The Chinese clerks in the department get an increase at the 20 per cent. rate. In the Police Force the Captain-Superintendent's salary is increased from $5,040 to $5,320.

In 1878 the salary was $3,840 and $1,200 from the Special Fund. How the present amount is arrived at therefore does not appear, as it is less than 35 per cent. on the total of 1878 and more than 35 per cent. on the salary without the allowance from the Special Fund. The Deputy Superintendent in 1878 got $3,120; the amount put down for next year is $3,640. The office is now revived after being out of existence for a number of years, and therefore it will be held does not apply in this case. The first clerk and accountant in 1878 got $1,440, he is now to receive $2,424, which shows an increase of 65 per cent. The present salary is $1,820. The increase may not be more than the gentleman deserves, but some explanation seems necessary. The second clerk also gets an increase which amounts to nearly 75 per cent. on the 1878 salary. The salary put down for the Superintendent of the Gaol next year is $4,880, as compared with $3,850 in 1878, an increase of some 43 per cent. The $720 house allowance granted to the Superintendent a short time ago is now amalgamated with the salary.

This house allowance ought properly speaking to have been deducted from the increase, as in the case of the first clerk in the Magistrate's office, which would have brought the salary on the new basis to $3,816, or more than $1,000 less than the amount it is proposed to give. It is true the Superintendent had quarters in 1878, but those quarters are still available. The $720 house allowance was given to Major-General Gordon simply as an indulgence, because he preferred to live outside the Gaol, although the interests of the service as well as the Gaol Regulations require that he should live inside. The Wardens on the other hand, get an increase of less than 20 per cent., although this is an office usually filled by a candidate from England within the meaning of the Secretary of State's despatch.

These and similar inconsistencies will doubtless be explained by the Acting Colonial Secretary when the Estimates come on for discussion. The Sanitary Superintendent also receives an increase, but this is independent of the 1878 basis, as the department was not then in existence.

The French gunboat Albatros arrived here yesterday to join the French squadron on the China station.

The P. & O. steamer Olyda left Singapore for this port on 22nd inst. at 5 p.m. with the outward English mails.

The Mayor of Manila has been in receipt of the 30th September and was able to a great height. The eruption ceased when the typhoon came on.

A telegram has been received at Manila from London to the effect that the landing place of the Philippine cable will probably be transferred from Manila to Zamboanga. This would prevent the interruption which now occurs when as frequently happens, the land-line in Luzon are broken down.

At the meeting of the Club Australian Syndicate, held at 8 p.m. on the 20th inst., Mr. Booth, M.P., presided. The result of the first meeting had, perhaps, been a disappointment to the public, as very exaggerated opinions had been indulged in, but the discussion did not end in vain. Two-and-a-half cent. of the share was very far from considering that only one small line of reef in twenty square miles of country had been worked.

The manager was doing his best to get the reef worked up to the top, and the result was that the reef had been worked up to the top, and the IMPERIAL QUARTO.

ENGLISH AND CHINESE DICTIONARY WITH THE PUNTS AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION.
An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Press of the Chinese Office, Hongkong.
For comprehensive reference, and service to all who study the Chinese language, this Work stands unrivalled... All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous advances in machinery, science, technology, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign literature has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises in reading, and a most instructive and valuable guide to the student. The English and Chinese and English type correspond in the same body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which heretofore characterized Chinese publications.
To illustrate the vast scope of the work the following facts are submitted for consideration:
The Chinese Vocabulary contains about 18,000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst the present work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, despite all the grammars and other elementary works as yet published, the attainment of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various applications and significances of different words. This work has no general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than five times as many as our other Dictionary hitherto published.
For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives whose knowledge of the vocabulary consists in the respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the native themselves it explains subjects fully with which they were ill-fitted to form any perfectly acquainted with the Chinese character and the Chinese language in China it cannot be too invaluable occasionally.
It comprises upwards of two thousand large pages.

4 Vols. IMPERIAL QUARTO, Price $20.
A LARGE REDUCTION IN PRICE is made to Purchasers of SIX or more Copies.
